Personal Representative

by Ill.: Russell B. Glendinning, 33°

Brethren: With the Covid-19 virus many plans are up in the air and planning can be somewhat difficult. With that being said, the Valley of Tampa is moving forward the best we can, keeping in mind the health and safety of our members. At the Valley, we continue to take temperatures when you enter the building, stress the importance of wearing masks where social distancing cannot be achieved and have hand sanitizing stations located through the building.

One event that everyone looks forward to is our Annual Feast of Kadosh Banquet that has been held in the month of March. Due to the uncertainty of the virus, we have put this event on hold for the time being. Our Commander of the Council, Brother Rick Vogt, 32° KCCH and I will be looking at an event to celebrate the Kadosh sometime later this year.

Our Annual Ceremony of Renewal and Remembrance will be on April 12, 2021. This is an obligatory observance sponsored by the Chapter of Rose Croix where members of the Chapter of Rose Croix celebrate both the beginning and end of life. The ceremony is open to one and all as we honor those members of the Chapter of Rose Croix have left our midst in the past year. The ceremony is under the direction of Brother Joe Gonzalez, 32° KCCH. If you have never attended this ceremony, I encourage you to attend this year. The ceremony and its teachings is one of the best ceremonies that the Scottish Rite has for members and non-members alike.

April also brings us our Spring Reunion in memory of Ill.: Patrick Palmer, 33°. Our Illustrious Brother was a dedicated worker in Freemasonry. Now is the time to talk with your Blue Lodge brethren about taking that additional step in Freemasonry by becoming a member of this Spring Class. The Reunion will be held April 10 and 17. Petitions may be obtained from the office or from the Valley's website.

As you remember, in the January issue of The Bulletin, I announced that we were looking to sell a part of our property and building a new and smaller building. We did receive in January an up-to-date appraisal on the property, so we know what the value of the property is. I promise that I will keep you informed as we continue down this road.

As the Personal Representative, it is my duty to report to each of you the status of your Valley. While we had great attendance and participation in our events in 2020 (even with the Covid-19 virus,) there were other things that we need work on. At the present time, we have 2,147 members. In 2020, we lost 100+ members by death. While we have no direct control over deaths, we do have direct control over bringing new brothers into the Scottish Rite and we have reduced the number of suspensions for non-payment of dues. There are 60 Lodges in the 14th, 18th, 19th, 20th, 21st and 23rd Districts, which comprise the Valley of Tampa and we have membership in each of them. Just one new Master of the Royal Secret from each of these Lodges in each Reunion would bring us 120 new Masters of the Royal Secret in 2021. Broken down that way, it does not seem as an unsurmountable task. I hope that you will join me in working toward this goal for 2021.

Brethren, in closing, I would like to thank each of you for what you are doing to promote our great Fraternity. I know that each of us have other obligations in our daily lives, but I sincerely believe that Freemasonry is always with you each day. 🙏

KCCH
Wise Master

Brother Kenneth A. (Kenny) Carolan was elected to serve as Wise Master in the Chapter, Rose Croix in the Valley of Tampa for the year 2021. Our Wise Master was born in Queens, New York and raised there until he was drafted in the U. S. Army. He is a combat veteran of the Vietnam War and served proudly in the 173rd Airborne. After receiving his Honorable Discharge, Brother Kenny became a union meat cutter for five years and then joined the Union Ironworkers in 1969 and worked 27 years in Newark, New Jersey and 13 years in Tampa, Florida. In addition, he formed a successful family business which lasted until his retirement.

Our Wise Master graduated from the National Labor College with a BA and holds two Masters Degrees from Rutgers University in Human Resources Management. He also is the author of the book, The Union Ironworker "What We Do."

Brother Carolan's masonic career began in 1975 when he petitioned Tarpon Lodge No. 112. He progressed through the chairs and served as Worshipful Master of Tarpon Lodge in 1980. It was also in 1980 that he became a Master of the Royal Secret in the Valley of Tampa and became a Noble in Egypt Shriners. In his Lodge, our Wise Master is a Gold and Brown card holder. Douglas W.
Dobbs, 32°
Venerable Master

Brother Douglas (Doug) Wayne Dobbs, 32° was elected to serve the Tampa Lodge of Perfection as its Venerable Master for the year 2021. A true Floridian, Brother Doug was born in 1961 in Arcadia, Florida. He attended school in Manatee County and continued his education at Manatee Vocational Technical School and Manatee Community College. In 1982 he went to work for the City of Bradenton reading water meters and after four years was promoted to the position of Assistant Superintendent and then as the Superintendent of the Water Distribution and Sewer Collection Division where he supervised 35 employees with a budget of five million dollars at the time of his retirement in 2012.

Our Venerable Master began his Masonic journey when he petitioned Manatee Lodge No. 31 in 2009. He served his Lodge as Worshipful Master in 2016 and served as Lodge Secretary in 2017. In 2018, he was installed District Deputy Grand Master of the 23rd Masonic District, representing M.:W.: John E. Karroum. In 2019 he served as Zone 6 Chairman of the Child ID Committee.

Brother Doug petitioned the Valley of Tampa and became a Master of the Royal Secret in 2014 and became a Perpetual Member in July, 2016. He has served the Valley on the Degree Teams 9th, 10th and 21st Degrees and in the Prop Room. He also served

George Washington (1732-1799), our first President, became a Mason at around age 20. The Fraternity's espousal of the Enlightenment principles of rationality, reason, and brotherhood appeared to appeal to him.

Washington is said to have had a fiery temper. He is also said to know "...the importance of subsuming his passions beneath a firm constitution." Many strong-willed leaders have a temper, but the great ones manage to conquer it with the same courage and control with which they face all challenges.

Perhaps the Fraternity positively influenced Washington in this regard.

Among the documented influences upon Washington was the life of Cato of Rome (95-46 BCE), referred to as Cato the Younger (his great-grandfather Cato the Elder [234-149 BCE] was a military tribune and historian.)

Cato the Younger was a student of Stoic philosophy, but is better known and remembered for his political role during Rome's transition from a republic to an empire; specifically, his commitment to the former. He was dedicated to the elimination of corruption in Rome and returning it to its core values. He exemplified opposition to tyranny.

Like Washington, he also had a fiery temper. He controlled both it and his tongue. He once explained, "I begin to speak only when I'm certain what I'll say isn't better left unsaid."

Historians depict Cato as being indifferent to anything but virtue and duty. Reputation did not matter (remember the Senior Deacon's presentation to a new candidate?) He exemplified a classic Stoic precept: what is right is right; nothing else matters; practice and demonstrate virtue. He is remembered by the historian Sallust (86-35 BCE) for the "uprightness of his life... the cultivation of self-control, propriety and sternness."

Washington knew all this. In May 1778 after a harsh winter at Valley Forge, he arranged to present a theatrical production of James Addison's 1713 tragedy

Cato. Some scholars have viewed this presentation as an attempt by Washington to inspire his troops to continue their struggle against tyranny, notwithstanding their hard environment.

Washington clearly is an exemplar of virtue, self-control, commitment to duty, liberty and justice. He mastered his temper.

Maybe he self-developed himself by studying the history of the stoic, Cato the Younger. And maybe the Entered Apprentice assisted him in his journey.

In any event, we should emulate as best we can, in our much simpler lives, the examples of Washington and Cato the Younger. We can learn to control our tongues and passion, perform our duty, and live virtually, even if we cannot rid the world of tyranny and corruption. We do what we can, and what we must.

The Spring Reunion is scheduled for April 10 and 17, as we endeavor to return to our usual "cycle." The schedule is subject to the confirmation by all degree teams and the approval of the Executive Committee and Deputy. It is published elsewhere in the Bulletin. 🐾

as Executive Committee Officer Member-At-Large in 2019 and 2020.

Brother Dobbs is continuing to serve the Valley and his District by being the President for 2021 at the Sarasota Scottish Rite Club and being involved in the York Rite Bodies as Captain of the Host in Sarasota Chapter No. 35 Royal Arch Masons. He is a member in the Samoor Grotto, Allied Masonic Degrees, Manasota Council No. 305, Mystic Brotherhood, Council No. 35 and others.

He would like to thank one and all for his journey in the Valley of Tampa, for their support and faith in him as the Venerable Master for 2021. 🐾

Worship Away your Worries

But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Matthew 6:33-34 (NIV)

What has you staying up at night? Family matters? The economy? A health issue? There are many ways suggested that are unique ways to rid yourself of worry. They include changing your bedtime, smelling a grapefruit, and engaging in forest therapy. These strange suggestions have one thing in common—they try to take your mind off of your worries.

There's a better, spiritual answer to worry. God gives us a great treatment for worry as we read in the title scripture. He says, "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own." God says seek Him first. Focus your attention on worshipping the God who made you, loves you and cares for you.

Worshipping together with other Christians can be uplifting. When we sing and pray and put our thoughts toward God, it helps us deal with worry in our minds. Most importantly, when we listen for God through worship and prayer and His Word, we hear His voice speaking into our lives. When you examine friends who worship regularly and are in the Bible regularly, you'll find they have something in common—they probably don't worry very much. Because the more time we spend with God, the more trusting we become toward Him, and the less worried we become about the circumstances around us.

Are people in general more worried today? Recent data suggests that people are more worried than ever, from anxiety over terror attacks, to finances, to loved ones, to identity theft. At the same time, church attendance is down, with only 28% of younger Americans (between 23 and 37) attending church. One must wonder if there is a correlation between the two.

In 2013, the New York Times published an article about the benefits of church. They cited studies that church attendance boosts the immune system, decreases blood pressure and may add up to three years to your life. Worship affects a person in a positive way, physically, emotionally and mentally.

When you worry, follow God's instruction and worship. Engage in prayer. Sing a song of praise. Listen to your preacher. Open the Bible and read what God has said. Seek first God and His Kingdom. When you make worship the priority, you leave no room for worry. 🐾

In Memoriam

“Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me! And may there be no moaning of the bar, when I put out to sea, but such a tide as moving seems asleep, too full for sound and foam, when that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home. Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark! And may there be no sadness of farewell, when I embark; for tho’ from out our bourne of Time and Place the flood may bear me far, I hope to see my Pilot face to face when I have crossed the bar.” – Tennyson
