Personal Representative

by Ill.: Russell B. Glendinning, 33°

Brethren: As I write this article, I want to thank Ill.: Jerry Lee, 33° who put together a fantastic Flag Day program at our June meeting. I would also like to thank the National Sojourners, Heroes of '76, for their presentation on the History of Military Flags. Their program was very informative, and I am sure that we all learned something about our flag that we did not know.

In this issue of The Bulletin, you will find a listing of our members who have been elected or appointed to serve the Grand Lodge of Florida and the Three Grand York Rite Bodies this year. Congratulations Brothers on your work and dedication to Freemasonry in general and to our Grand Lodge and Grand York Rite Bodies in particular.

Brethren, I ask that you please look at your Scottish Rite dues card. If it says that it expired in 2020, would you assist your Valley by paying your 2021 dues? Your number of years of Scottish Rite membership is important to the Valley and to the Scottish Rite. If you find that you are in a position of not being able to write that check, please contact the General Secretary. We will do everything possible to assist you so that you may continue your membership in the Scottish Rite.

In closing, even though summer is here, the activity at your Scottish Rite is ongoing. We welcome all of our members to attend either the monthly Consistory meeting on the second Monday of each month or attend one of our Scottish Rite Club meetings throughout the Valley. Their meeting locations, times and dates can be found in this issue of the Bulletin. 🐾 foster unity and cohesion.

Throughout history, silence and secrecy have served as a qualification for initiation into religious, political and fraternal societies. Secrecy is a process of learning, whence an Initiate learned one "secret" before examining the next. Furthermore, secrecy fosters cohesion, unity and a mutual trust among members.

The 4th Degree, Secret Master, will be conferred at the Fall Reunion. Its final instruction is to "remain in silence." Good advice.

The Fall Reunion is scheduled for October 16 and 23. Degrees scheduled during year are:

- 13th Degree, Royal Arch of Solomon - July 12
- 8th Degree, Intendent of the Building - August 9
- 25th Degree, Knight of the Brazen Serpent - September 13
- 7th Degree, Provost and Judge - December 13 🐾

Secrecy and Silence

Secrecy -- the habit of concealing knowledge and practicing silence — has served organizations, ancient and modern, as

(i) a means of preparation for entry into a group, (ii) a tool of self-preservation, (iii) a learning process, and (iv) a method of fostering unity and cohesion.

Preparation. Initiates into the school of Pythagoras prepared “to preserve for five years the ‘Pythagorean silence’ ... before becoming a full member and being permitted to study under Pythagoras.” Until the Initiate demonstrated his ability to maintain secrecy, he studied with the “exoterici, or outer students.” Upon exhibiting the virtues of secrecy and silence, he was allowed to study with the “esoterici, or inner members, who were entitled to the secret wisdom of the Master himself.”

Preservation. Societies, whether fraternal, religious or political, have utilized secrecy for self-preservation. Karen Armstrong, in Islam—A Short History, describes the origins of Sufi mysticism. During the Abbasid dynasty (circa 750- 935 CE), esoteric movements commenced, including the mystic tradition Sufism. (The 25th Degree, Knight of Brazen Serpent, is based on Sufi concepts.) Sufi mysticism is characterized by more complex interpretations of the Quran than found in literal interpretations of Islamic jurisprudence. “These ideas were kept secret from the masses because the adepts believed that they could easily be misunderstood by those of meaner intelligence, and that they made sense only in a context of prayer and contemplation. Secrecy was a self-protective device.”

Learning. Returning to Pythagoras, secrecy was a process or journey. Only upon mastering mathematics, geometry and arithmetic could the Initiate advance to philosophy and religion. These advanced topics were “secret” simply because the Initiate was unprepared; it made little sense to consider the symbolism of a geometrical shape until geometry itself was understood.

As W.L. Wilmshurst wrote in The Meaning of Masonry, “There has always existed an external, elementary, popular doctrine which has served for the instruction of the masses who are insufficiently prepared for deeper teaching; and concurrently therewith there has been an interior, advanced doctrine, a more secret knowledge, which has been reserved for riper minds and into which only proficient and properly prepared candidates, who voluntarily sought to participate in it, were initiated.”

Unity. Secrecy creates a bond within a group. It supplies an ethic of reputation, a contract of promise-keeping. It does not matter that a “secret” is readily known. It is the conduct of confidentiality and privacy that matters to members. In the practice of the Eleusinian Mysteries, a religious practice of Athens, circa sixth century BCE, “What happened inside the cult hall was kept secret to provide participants with experience of the sacred” and to

Three Patriotic Lessons for July 4th

“Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people he chose for his inheritance. From heaven the LORD looks down and sees all mankind; from his dwelling place he watches all who live on earth – he who forms the hearts of all, who considers everything they do.”

Psalm 33: 12-15 NIV

Patriotism has become passé these days. After all, it’s been 239 years since the signing of the Declaration of Independence, so naturally, enthusiasm for July 4 celebrations has waned. And in recent years progressive educators have focused on America’s flagrant flaws (slavery, greed, war, etc.) and pretty much ignored our nation’s accomplishments.

No wonder when Rolling Stone magazine polled its readers on the question, “Is there anything that would motivate you to die for your country?” 40% said no. Most youth are ignorant of America’s unique spiritual heritage and have little concept of what our nation was intended to be. We’ve slipped a long way from the founding father’s willingness to pledge their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor for freedom to the cavalier spirit that permeates so many in this age.

In recent years some Christian leaders have contributed to the anti-patriotic spirit by preaching that any kind of patriotic expression in a church service is inappropriate. They argue that since we worship God alone, it’s idolatry to pay honor to the nation. And since God loves people of every tongue, tribe, and nation, it’s blasphemous to picture God in heaven waving an American flag.

I think we would do well this Fourth of July weekend to study the above scripture closely.

On this July 4th weekend, Christians living in the United States of America would do well to underscore three principles from this passage.

All cultures are not spiritually equal. Some nations honor the Lord and some don’t. God chose to destroy Sodom and spare Nineveh based on each city’s reaction to his authority.

Any nation that honors the Lord is promised his blessing. Since, “The Lord sees all mankind,” he promises to bless every nation that will honor him as their God.

It’s appropriate for the nation God blesses to give thanks. The Bible says every good and perfect gift comes from God. America is not a perfect gift, but it is a really good gift. The Christians I know are not so shallow as to imagine God waving an American flag; however, we do know a good gift when we see it. It’s not idolatry to give thanks for the blessings of our nation any more than it’s idolatrous to give God thanks for the blessings of our families on Mother’s Day. We can be unashamedly patriotic and unapologetically Christian at the same time.

No nation in the world has been more blessed than the United States of America. Anyone who has traveled to other continents is aware that we are uniquely blessed with incredible resources, breathtaking scenery, unprecedented freedom, and international influence. We have also been blessed with an outstanding governmental system that has served us well for over 200 years.

Why have we been so blessed? Are we more intelligent? More industrious? More deserving? No. We are blessed because God was honored in the founding of our country and he has kept his promise. The fact that this country was founded on Judeo-Christian principles is so evident in early documents and inscriptions on historic buildings and monuments that it can’t be denied.

Saluting the flag, standing at attention during the national anthem, singing, “God bless America,” and voting faithfully are not the most patriotic things you can do for this country. We help America most by living a Godly life. For the “Lord loves righteousness and justice.” (Psalm 33:5)

Some who sneer at nationalistic pride do so because they are convinced the only solution to global problems is a one-world government. They belittle patriotism because their hope is in the United Nations more than the United States. But the Bible predicts that any attempt to govern without God is doomed to fail. 🇺🇸

In Memoriam

“Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me! And may there be no moaning of the bar, when I put out to sea, but such a tide as moving seems asleep, too full for sound and foam, when that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home. Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark! And may there be no sadness of farewell, when I embark; for tho’ from out our bourne of Time and Place the flood may bear me far, I hope to see my Pilot face to face when I have crossed the bar.” – Tennyson
