The Scottish Rite Foundation of Florida

Current Needs & Future Plans

Thanks to the generosity of Scottish Rite members throughout the national and local Foundations, which provide financial support for our Childhood Language Disorder Clinics and Programs, thousands of children have been evaluated and successfully treated in a nurturing environment.

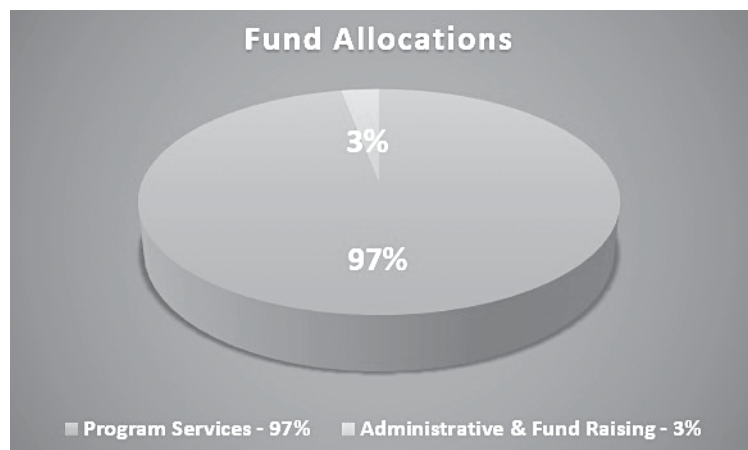

Miracles CAN happen and with skillful evaluation and treatment, miracles are happening in Scottish Rite facilities in Florida and throughout the United States. However, more clinics and programs are needed to help all the children with these problems.

Also, Scottish Rite Clinics already in existence continue to need donations for additional therapists, instructional materials, special equipment and improved facilities.

Report Card To Donors

We place a high priority on ensuring that donations are used wisely, and we are proud of the fact, as illustrated by the graph above 97 cents of every dollar contributed went directly to our mission: "Helping Children Communicate."

We pride ourselves on being faithful stewards of the funds that have been graciously donated by individuals, corporations and organizations nationwide. In all, the Scottish Rite Foundation of Florida, Inc, 501(c)(3), has generated more than nine million dollars in support of our clinics since its inception in 1962. A copy of the official registration and financial information may be obtained from the Division of Consumer Services by calling toll free within the state (1-800-435-7352). Registration does not imply endorsement, approval or recommendation by the state.

Brethren: Happy New Year!!!!

I hope you and your Family had a very enjoyable Holiday and are now looking forward as I am to more normalcy in 2024 since we are back in our building at 5500 Memorial Highway. The last eighteen (18) months have been a challenge, but now that we are "home," it's time to get excited again about being a Scottish Rite Mason.

This year we are once again conferring degrees during our Reunions. Initially we will be conferring the mandatory five (5) Degrees so if you are a cast member of the 4th, 14th, 18th, 30th, or 32nd Degree, now is the time to start reacquainting yourself with your part. The Spring Reunion will be honoring Illustrious James E. Bradford, 33° and is scheduled for Saturday, April 27, which is about four (4) months away. Now is the time to start talking about the Scottish Rite with your Blue Lodge Brothers and getting those petitions submitted. We have started using a new caterer for our meals and so far the feedback I have received has been very positive. The menus for our January and February meetings are listed in the coming events section of the bulletin and it is my understanding that our caterer can prepare just about anything we want. So... if you have some suggestions for future meals, please forward them to the office so we can discuss them with the caterer. Our cost is currently $12 per plate, but that could increase to $15 per plate based on the menu we request.

I want to congratulate the Brothers elected to serve the Valley of Tampa for 2024. Specifically, I am talking about our new Master of Kadosh, Brother Jeffrey T. Sklet, 32° KCCH, our new Commander of Kadosh, Brother Joseph A. Severino, 32°, our new Wise Master, Brother Donald W. Cowart, 32° KCCH (Deputy Grand Master of Masons of Florida), and our new Venerable Master, Brother Glen B. Bishop, 32° KCCH (Grand Master of Masons of Florida.) These Brothers along with the members of the Executive Committee will be working hard during 2024 to provide the leadership and new ideas necessary for us to have a successful year. To accomplish this goal we will need the support and participation of as many of our members as possible.

I also want to thank the many Brothers that worked hard in 2023 for the benefit of the Valley. I especially want to thank our outgoing heads of the Bodies, Brother Chase Harrison, 32°, Brother Drew Baldwin, 32° KCCH, Brother Joey Davis, 32° KCCH, and Brother

This publication acknowledges authority and yields allegiance to the Supreme Council A&A Scottish Rite, Southern Jurisdiction of which Ill. : Richard G. Hoover, 33° is Sovereign Grand Inspector General in the Orient of Florida.

Rick Wendling, 32° KCCH. I hope we can continue to count on your leadership and participation in the activities and functions we will have going forward at the Valley Tampa.

In closing with the words of Ill. : Russell B. Glendinning, 33°, “brethren I ask again that you do what you can for your Scottish Rite in 2024. That may be attending Consistory meetings, Club meetings, volunteering your time for projects that need to be accomplished or encouraging your Blue Lodge brethren who are not members of the Scottish Rite to take that next step in Freemasonry. As always, ideas and suggestions are always welcomed and encouraged.” 🐼

Coming Masonic Events

Please note ALL Scottish Rite Masons may attend the Executive Committee Meetings. The Executive Committee Meetings start at 4:30 p.m. with Dinner being served at 5:30 p.m. The cost for the Dinner will be $12 per person unless otherwise noted. Since we are currently using an outside caterer for our meals, it is very important that you make your reservations no later than 5:00 p.m. on the Thursday before the Monday meeting so the caterer has sufficient time to purchase the food for the Monday night meeting.

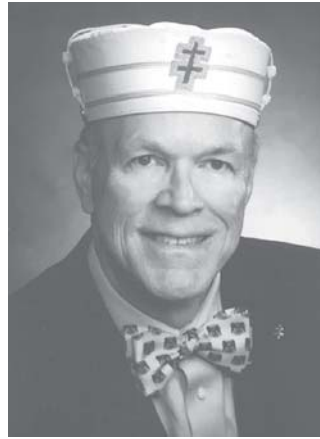

Regular meetings will start at 7:00 p.m. unless otherwise noted. Visit the Valley of Tampa website for the latest information on meetings and events.

Member Education & Director of Work

by Casey A. Fletcher, 33°

The 31st Degree, Inspector Inquisitor or Initiate of the Egyptian Mysteries, is derived from the Book of the Dead. Generically, the Book of the Dead refers to multiple ancient papyrus scrolls written in Egypt from about 1700 BCE to about 1200 BCE. They include discourses about funeral rites, justice, right conduct and the afterlife. Written in hieroglyphics, the scrolls were discovered by Europeans during the Middle Ages in coffins and burial chambers.

Some modern scholars suggest a better title for the scrolls should be something like “Coming Forth into the Light.” That translation, “coming forth into the Light,” has a Masonic ring to it. It might remind us of a scene at the brow of a small hill.

Many of the scrolls include scenes in which a departed soul is examined and ultimately judged by Egyptian deities. The 31st Degree draws upon and adapts several versions of the examination.

In one version of the examination, the gods begin by saying to the soul, in effect, “make your case. Convince us that you are pure and noble; fit and worthy” to dwell with the gods in the realm of Light.

So, the soul gives it his best shot. He offers positive affirmations of his deeds, character, and conduct—an explanation of his life. He has obeyed the laws, lived properly and soberly; not neglected the worship of the gods, honored contracts; paid debts, taxes, and tributes; undertaken only lawful usury, committed no crimes; harmed or oppressed no man; he has contributed to charity; he has followed the rules and performed his prescribed duties. He has been fair in all dealings.

And the response of the gods? In effect, they say “... is that it? You have done your duty—but we cannot help but notice that you merely refrained from doing unlawful activities and that you did absolutely nothing more than is expected of any decent human being.” Ouch!

The gods further question the Candidate, question us—remember we are all candidates. They inquire about what is in the heart by asking twenty questions. As usual in the ritual, a guide answers for the candidate—but we must answer for ourselves.

Some deal with vices that are not unlawful e.g., anger, envy, selfishness, but they are vices, nonetheless. Though the gods do not use the word they inquire about schadenfreude. Schadenfreude is feeling pleasure about another person’s misfortune, perhaps because they are disliked, deserve misfortune, or are a rival of some kind. It is a vice unhealthy for the individual and for society at large. As Masons, we endeavor to remove such a vice from our thoughts and conduct—a tall order.

The Book of the Dead and the degree remind us, indeed admonish us, that adherence to ethical codes, commandments, civil regulations, moral creeds, and even Masonic obligations, are just a starting point—they are a minimum standard. We should not expect recognition, medals, certificates, or jewels for simply doing what is expected of us. Performance of our duty, whatever we perceive it to be, is a minimum standard for life.

The 31st Degree therefore raises the bar for our conduct. It challenges us to remove all vices from our character and to be “eager to do more than strict duty requires,” that we might someday rise up from the brow of that small hill and Come Forth into the Light of Day. 🐼

by Richard A.
Vogt, 33°

Another year has come and gone. We rejoice at the opportunity that a new year brings us. We look back on 2023 and we think about all the things we woulda, coulda, shoulda done. We think back on our losses—perhaps family and loved ones, our Masonic Brothers, missed opportunities—and we vow to do better in the new year. After all, isn't that what New Year's Resolutions are for? We also look back on what is happening in our communities and our country, and we perhaps become downhearted for all the tragedies we see occurring every day. How can we be helping to fight two wars at the same time? How can crime and racial hatred be so rampant and mass murders happen almost daily? Why can we not afford our groceries anymore and our life saving medications? Why is there so much homelessness, especially among our veterans? IS THERE NO GOD?

I assure, my Brothers, that there is a God; and He is a loving God. Bad things happen to good people, and good things happen to bad people. That is the way of our human existence. Sin came into the world because of a bad choice made in the Garden of Eden, and we are still experiencing the consequences. God does not cause our difficulties in life—We do! Or at least we suffer because of what other humans do. We are all connected in one way or another. Keep that in mind—what we do probably will affect someone you don't even know. But I digress.

Now that I have rained on your parade a little, let me get to the good news. God has promised to be with us throughout ALL of our lives if we but put our faith in Him. Let's look at Psalm 121, a Song of Ascents, "¹ I lift up my eyes to the hills. From where does my help come? ² My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. ³ He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber. ⁴ Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep. ⁵ The Lord is your keeper; the Lord is your shade on your right hand.

⁶ The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night. ⁷ The Lord will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life. ⁸ The Lord will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth and forevermore."

God has promised He will never leave us or forsake us. And He promises this for all eternity. Bad things happen, good things happen. God is with us through all of it. Do you need help, ask Him who created the heaven and the earth. Is life going good right now, praise Him for watching over you and your family. Make God the center of your everyday life. Thank Him when you awaken for giving you a new day. Thank Him when you go to sleep for watching over you that day. Matthew 6:33 says, "But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you." As Masons we all swear that we believe in one Supreme Being—by whatever name you call Him. Don't just believe that He exists, but have faith in who He says He is! 🙏

The installation is open to all members, their families, and friends. Dinner will be served beginning at 5:30 p.m. with the Installation to begin at 7:00 p.m.

In Memoriam

“Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me! And may there be no moaning of the bar, when I put out to sea, but such a tide as moving seems asleep, too full for sound and foam, when that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home. Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark! And may there be no sadness of farewell, when I embark; for tho’ from out our bourne of Time and Place the flood may bear me far, I hope to see my Pilot face to face when I have crossed the bar.” – Tennyson
